AN EXHORTATION ON RIGHTEOUSNESS

The Promised Messiah (as) said: "I deem it most appropriate, in the best interest of my community, to advise them on righteousness, because a sensible person obviously knows that nothing pleases Allah the Exalted more than piety."

Allah Almighty states:

إِنَّ اللَّهَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ اتَّقَوْا وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ مُحْسِنُونَ

"Verily, Allah is with those who are righteous and those who do good."

Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian
The Promised Messiah & Mahdi
(on whom be peace)

"It is particularly incumbent upon my community to adopt righteousness, especially in view of the fact that they associate themselves with and swear allegiance to a man who claims to be divinely commissioned. In this way, they shall be delivered from any of the diverse forms of malice, rancour, associating partners with God, and worldly attachment that may plague them. It is a well-known fact that irrespective of whether an individual is suffering from a minor illness or a more serious one, they cannot be cured until remedy is sought and trouble is taken to find a cure. Even if a small black blemish appears on a person's face, this causes serious apprehension, lest the mark should spread to cover the entire face. Similarly, sin is a blemish that blackens a person's heart. Disregard for minor trespasses steer an individual to greater evil. A minor sin is like the small blemish which spreads to disfigure a person's entire face.

Just as Allah the Exalted is Merciful and Munificent, He is also Mighty and punishes those who do wrong. When He observes a community boasting and making tall claims while their practical state is quite the opposite, His fury and wrath are provoked. God decides to punish such a community at the hands of disbelievers. Those who are familiar with history know that Muslims have on many an occasion been defeated by disbelievers. Genghis Khan and Hulagu Khan devastated the Muslims, and even though Allah the Exalted had promised to protect and support the Muslims, they were still overpowered. Instances like these have often transpired and the very reason for this is that the might of Allah Almighty manifests its power when He sees that although a group of people recite "There is none worthy of worship except Allah" yet their hearts are disposed to other interests and their deeds are of worldly bent."

MESSAGE FROM SADR MAJLIS

My Dear Khuddam brothers,

Assalamo Alaikum wa Rahmatullahi wa Baraktuhu

By the sheer grace of Allah, another year for Majlis Khuddamul Ahmadiyya has come to an end. Allah the Almighty states in the Holy Qur'an:

وَأَنْ تَعُدُّوا نِعْمَتَ اللَّهِ لَا تَحْصُوهَا

“And if you try to count the favours of Allah, you will not be able to number them.”
(14:35)

Truly, in this past year, Allah the Almighty has blessed us immensely and has covered many of our shortcomings. If we begin to count the blessings and favours of Allah, we will grow weary of this impossible task. Thus, it is imperative that we all end this year whilst remembering Allah and being grateful to Him.

At the same time, I would also like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to my Khuddam brothers across Canada who worked tirelessly to serve their faith, and who played an integral role in making all of our efforts a success.

It is the Khuddam of Canada that truly make up the foundation of this Majlis, and it is through your efforts and tireless services for this Jama'at that propel us forward. As the Holy Prophet (sa) said, “One who is not thankful to man cannot be thankful to God.” (Sunan Abi Dawud 4811).

And so, without showing our gratitude for you would also mean that we do not acknowledge the blessings of Allah the Almighty. Thank you for all that you do for the Jama'at, and for Majlis Khuddamul Ahmadiyya Canada.

Let us end this year in thanks to Allah for blessing us immensely and concealing our shortcomings, and let us critically look at our past mistakes so that we can take steps toward improvement in the year to come.

I look forward to working with each and every one of you in this new year. Let us pray for the future success of Majlis Khuddamul Ahmadiyya Canada. Above all, always keep our Beloved Imam, Hazrat Khalifatul Masih V (aa) in your prayers. I would also encourage my brothers to write a letter to Beloved Huzoor (aa) with the coming of the new Khuddam year.

Furthermore, as our Beloved Imam (aa) has also repeatedly reminded us, please pray for the conditions of the world, for the many families who have been impacted in Palestine and for the thousands of innocent lives that were lost.

May Allah fulfil our prayers and enable us to always be grateful to Him and serve His cause. Ameen.

Topics ranging from contemporary challenges to how to conduct Amila meetings were covered. After lunch and a few fun group activities all the Qaidin gathered in the main hall to listen to guidance given by beloved Huzoor (aa) at the Qaidin Forum held in the United Kingdom.

CALGARY REGION QAIDIN RETREAT

The event concluded with lunch.

PRAIRIE REGION
